

Social Media Policy

Social Media Policy

cPort Credit Union participates in social media forums to better serve our members. Persons are prohibited from posting anything that it considers to be offensive or derogatory, including anything that disparages its reputation or the reputation of others. cPort has the unfettered discretion to remove or block such postings from any of its social media platforms. To ensure that your privacy is not compromised, please address any complaints or concerns directly with a cPort representative.